

MAHONE AT WORK.

He Is Conferring With Republican and Populist Leaders.

CONTESTS IN ALL DISTRICTS.

It Is Proposed That Either Radicals or Third Party Men Shall Oppose Democracy—Washington Briefs.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 21.—(Special.)—It can be stated on good authority that General Mahone has recently held conferences with both Republicans and Populists in regard to the coming campaign in Virginia. A well-known Republican let slip a remark to the effect that a night or two ago General Mahone had a long talk with Senator Clarkson, of Iowa, and it is further stated that contests should be made in all of the congressional districts of Virginia. The plan is to run Republicans in some of the districts, and in other to have the Populist candidates endorsed. In every one a determined fight is to be waged against the Democratic nominee. It is understood that a number of the Populists will confer here to-morrow with some of their leaders from Virginia in attendance, so it is stated.

General Mahone was at the Capitol today, and was in earnest consultation with Congressman Late, of the Colorado district, who made a number of speeches in Virginia last year. General Mahone is planning just now to make a piece of ground in the State to which he will go to when he comes to office the proposed new government printing office. He got no help from the Virginia delegation, and it would be natural for him to desire to secure one of the members of the polls.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Epes Johnston, Jr., of Warrenton, Ore., was summoned to appear before the grand jury at Richland, S. C., to be examined as to the bribery charges reached the grand jury last night, and was on hand at the Capitol this morning. It is a well-known fact that he is a resident of Warrenton, and is a member of the grand jury of that county. He is a well-known figure in the State, and is a member of the grand jury of that county.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Epes Johnston, Jr., of Warrenton, Ore., was summoned to appear before the grand jury at Richland, S. C., to be examined as to the bribery charges reached the grand jury last night, and was on hand at the Capitol this morning. It is a well-known fact that he is a resident of Warrenton, and is a member of the grand jury of that county. He is a well-known figure in the State, and is a member of the grand jury of that county.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Epes Johnston, Jr., of Warrenton, Ore., was summoned to appear before the grand jury at Richland, S. C., to be examined as to the bribery charges reached the grand jury last night, and was on hand at the Capitol this morning. It is a well-known fact that he is a resident of Warrenton, and is a member of the grand jury of that county. He is a well-known figure in the State, and is a member of the grand jury of that county.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Epes Johnston, Jr., of Warrenton, Ore., was summoned to appear before the grand jury at Richland, S. C., to be examined as to the bribery charges reached the grand jury last night, and was on hand at the Capitol this morning. It is a well-known fact that he is a resident of Warrenton, and is a member of the grand jury of that county. He is a well-known figure in the State, and is a member of the grand jury of that county.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Epes Johnston, Jr., of Warrenton, Ore., was summoned to appear before the grand jury at Richland, S. C., to be examined as to the bribery charges reached the grand jury last night, and was on hand at the Capitol this morning. It is a well-known fact that he is a resident of Warrenton, and is a member of the grand jury of that county. He is a well-known figure in the State, and is a member of the grand jury of that county.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Epes Johnston, Jr., of Warrenton, Ore., was summoned to appear before the grand jury at Richland, S. C., to be examined as to the bribery charges reached the grand jury last night, and was on hand at the Capitol this morning. It is a well-known fact that he is a resident of Warrenton, and is a member of the grand jury of that county. He is a well-known figure in the State, and is a member of the grand jury of that county.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Epes Johnston, Jr., of Warrenton, Ore., was summoned to appear before the grand jury at Richland, S. C., to be examined as to the bribery charges reached the grand jury last night, and was on hand at the Capitol this morning. It is a well-known fact that he is a resident of Warrenton, and is a member of the grand jury of that county. He is a well-known figure in the State, and is a member of the grand jury of that county.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Epes Johnston, Jr., of Warrenton, Ore., was summoned to appear before the grand jury at Richland, S. C., to be examined as to the bribery charges reached the grand jury last night, and was on hand at the Capitol this morning. It is a well-known fact that he is a resident of Warrenton, and is a member of the grand jury of that county. He is a well-known figure in the State, and is a member of the grand jury of that county.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Epes Johnston, Jr., of Warrenton, Ore., was summoned to appear before the grand jury at Richland, S. C., to be examined as to the bribery charges reached the grand jury last night, and was on hand at the Capitol this morning. It is a well-known fact that he is a resident of Warrenton, and is a member of the grand jury of that county. He is a well-known figure in the State, and is a member of the grand jury of that county.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Epes Johnston, Jr., of Warrenton, Ore., was summoned to appear before the grand jury at Richland, S. C., to be examined as to the bribery charges reached the grand jury last night, and was on hand at the Capitol this morning. It is a well-known fact that he is a resident of Warrenton, and is a member of the grand jury of that county. He is a well-known figure in the State, and is a member of the grand jury of that county.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Epes Johnston, Jr., of Warrenton, Ore., was summoned to appear before the grand jury at Richland, S. C., to be examined as to the bribery charges reached the grand jury last night, and was on hand at the Capitol this morning. It is a well-known fact that he is a resident of Warrenton, and is a member of the grand jury of that county. He is a well-known figure in the State, and is a member of the grand jury of that county.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Epes Johnston, Jr., of Warrenton, Ore., was summoned to appear before the grand jury at Richland, S. C., to be examined as to the bribery charges reached the grand jury last night, and was on hand at the Capitol this morning. It is a well-known fact that he is a resident of Warrenton, and is a member of the grand jury of that county. He is a well-known figure in the State, and is a member of the grand jury of that county.

CONEY GOES TO JAIL.

Browne and Jones Also Placed in Durance Vile.

THE SPEECHES IN COURT.

Those in Behalf of the Defendants Political Harangues—The Commonwealth Army Going to Pieces.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 21.—Coxey, Browne, and Jones were sentenced by Judge Miller in the Washington Police Court this afternoon to twenty days in jail for violating the Statute of the United States prohibiting the display of banners in the Capitol grounds, and Coxey and Browne were fined $5 each additional for trespassing on the grass. The alternative being another ten days in jail, Jones was acquitted on this last charge.

The proceedings preliminary to the passing of sentence were in line with the series of extraordinary incidents that have marked the whole trial. The Police Court-room was crowded with spectators at 10 o'clock, the hour set for passing sentence, but it was forty minutes later before the court was called to order. During the interval Judge Miller was having a conference with the Commonwealth's Attorney, and the defendants' counsel for the defense. The judge's brother died yesterday, and it was only after entreaties by the defendants that he decided to make another postponement. At 10:30, when Judge Miller took his seat, Assistant District Attorney Mulhoney moved that the trial be postponed to the 23rd inst., and the court was adjourned until that day.

The effect of Coxey's conviction on his camp, which was already demoralized by the arrest of Browne and Jones, was to bring about a complete collapse. The camp was broken up, and the defendants were taken to the jail. The camp was broken up, and the defendants were taken to the jail.

WILLIAMSPORT UNDER WATER.

The Rain Still Coming Down in Torrents—Loss Already More Than $1,000,000.

WILLIAMSPORT, PA., May 21.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon the water in the Susquehanna river had reached a height of thirty-one feet above low-water mark, one foot higher than the disastrous flood of 1880. The entire city is under water to a depth of four to six feet, and the water is still rising. The loss already reached $1,000,000. The city is under water to a depth of four to six feet, and the water is still rising.

THE ATLANTA EXPOSITION.

Probability of Securing the Government Building at Chicago.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 21.—J. J. Spaulding and Clark Howell, representing the Cotton States and International Exposition to be held in Atlanta in the fall of 1895, appeared this morning before the subcommittee of the Appropriations Committee of the House of Representatives. The committee also had before it a report from the Board of Commissioners of the Exposition, which was made up of representatives of the various States and Territories.

THE LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS.

Resolution Against Senator Walsh's Mail Train Bill—Elections.

ST. PAUL, May 21.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers today by acclamation adopted a resolution in regard to the proposed mail train bill of Senator Walsh, of Georgia, to prevent interference with mail trains, declaring that "this convention does consider this an unwise bill, the purpose of which is to prevent organizations of railway workmen from securing by the only means in their power a fair and equitable compensation for their services."

THE LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS.

Resolution Against Senator Walsh's Mail Train Bill—Elections.

ST. PAUL, May 21.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers today by acclamation adopted a resolution in regard to the proposed mail train bill of Senator Walsh, of Georgia, to prevent interference with mail trains, declaring that "this convention does consider this an unwise bill, the purpose of which is to prevent organizations of railway workmen from securing by the only means in their power a fair and equitable compensation for their services."

THE LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS.

Resolution Against Senator Walsh's Mail Train Bill—Elections.

ST. PAUL, May 21.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers today by acclamation adopted a resolution in regard to the proposed mail train bill of Senator Walsh, of Georgia, to prevent interference with mail trains, declaring that "this convention does consider this an unwise bill, the purpose of which is to prevent organizations of railway workmen from securing by the only means in their power a fair and equitable compensation for their services."

THE LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS.

Resolution Against Senator Walsh's Mail Train Bill—Elections.

ST. PAUL, May 21.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers today by acclamation adopted a resolution in regard to the proposed mail train bill of Senator Walsh, of Georgia, to prevent interference with mail trains, declaring that "this convention does consider this an unwise bill, the purpose of which is to prevent organizations of railway workmen from securing by the only means in their power a fair and equitable compensation for their services."

THE LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS.

Resolution Against Senator Walsh's Mail Train Bill—Elections.

ST. PAUL, May 21.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers today by acclamation adopted a resolution in regard to the proposed mail train bill of Senator Walsh, of Georgia, to prevent interference with mail trains, declaring that "this convention does consider this an unwise bill, the purpose of which is to prevent organizations of railway workmen from securing by the only means in their power a fair and equitable compensation for their services."

THE LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS.

Resolution Against Senator Walsh's Mail Train Bill—Elections.

ST. PAUL, May 21.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers today by acclamation adopted a resolution in regard to the proposed mail train bill of Senator Walsh, of Georgia, to prevent interference with mail trains, declaring that "this convention does consider this an unwise bill, the purpose of which is to prevent organizations of railway workmen from securing by the only means in their power a fair and equitable compensation for their services."

THE LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS.

Resolution Against Senator Walsh's Mail Train Bill—Elections.

THE BRIBERY CASE.

Investigation Begun by the Senate Committee.

MR. HUNTON'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Kyle Avers That He Was Directly Offered Money—Butts Enters a General Denial.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery alleged to have been attempted by Major Butts, and also to consider the doings of the Sugar Trust in connection with legislation, held two sessions to-day behind closed doors, with newspaper men and a few minutes before 10 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock a recess was taken. During the recess Mr. Gray, speaking for the committee, said that as soon as the case was concluded the committee would print the testimony and lay it before the Senate. He said that it would be much on the line of that which heretofore appeared in the newspapers, but with more detail. The fact that a direct offer of money was made has been proven by one witness at least, according to the statement of the chairman of the committee.

MR. HUNTON'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Kyle Avers That He Was Directly Offered Money—Butts Enters a General Denial.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery alleged to have been attempted by Major Butts, and also to consider the doings of the Sugar Trust in connection with legislation, held two sessions to-day behind closed doors, with newspaper men and a few minutes before 10 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock a recess was taken. During the recess Mr. Gray, speaking for the committee, said that as soon as the case was concluded the committee would print the testimony and lay it before the Senate. He said that it would be much on the line of that which heretofore appeared in the newspapers, but with more detail. The fact that a direct offer of money was made has been proven by one witness at least, according to the statement of the chairman of the committee.

MR. HUNTON'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Kyle Avers That He Was Directly Offered Money—Butts Enters a General Denial.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery alleged to have been attempted by Major Butts, and also to consider the doings of the Sugar Trust in connection with legislation, held two sessions to-day behind closed doors, with newspaper men and a few minutes before 10 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock a recess was taken. During the recess Mr. Gray, speaking for the committee, said that as soon as the case was concluded the committee would print the testimony and lay it before the Senate. He said that it would be much on the line of that which heretofore appeared in the newspapers, but with more detail. The fact that a direct offer of money was made has been proven by one witness at least, according to the statement of the chairman of the committee.

MR. HUNTON'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Kyle Avers That He Was Directly Offered Money—Butts Enters a General Denial.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery alleged to have been attempted by Major Butts, and also to consider the doings of the Sugar Trust in connection with legislation, held two sessions to-day behind closed doors, with newspaper men and a few minutes before 10 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock a recess was taken. During the recess Mr. Gray, speaking for the committee, said that as soon as the case was concluded the committee would print the testimony and lay it before the Senate. He said that it would be much on the line of that which heretofore appeared in the newspapers, but with more detail. The fact that a direct offer of money was made has been proven by one witness at least, according to the statement of the chairman of the committee.

MR. HUNTON'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Kyle Avers That He Was Directly Offered Money—Butts Enters a General Denial.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery alleged to have been attempted by Major Butts, and also to consider the doings of the Sugar Trust in connection with legislation, held two sessions to-day behind closed doors, with newspaper men and a few minutes before 10 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock a recess was taken. During the recess Mr. Gray, speaking for the committee, said that as soon as the case was concluded the committee would print the testimony and lay it before the Senate. He said that it would be much on the line of that which heretofore appeared in the newspapers, but with more detail. The fact that a direct offer of money was made has been proven by one witness at least, according to the statement of the chairman of the committee.

MR. HUNTON'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Kyle Avers That He Was Directly Offered Money—Butts Enters a General Denial.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery alleged to have been attempted by Major Butts, and also to consider the doings of the Sugar Trust in connection with legislation, held two sessions to-day behind closed doors, with newspaper men and a few minutes before 10 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock a recess was taken. During the recess Mr. Gray, speaking for the committee, said that as soon as the case was concluded the committee would print the testimony and lay it before the Senate. He said that it would be much on the line of that which heretofore appeared in the newspapers, but with more detail. The fact that a direct offer of money was made has been proven by one witness at least, according to the statement of the chairman of the committee.

MR. HUNTON'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Kyle Avers That He Was Directly Offered Money—Butts Enters a General Denial.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery alleged to have been attempted by Major Butts, and also to consider the doings of the Sugar Trust in connection with legislation, held two sessions to-day behind closed doors, with newspaper men and a few minutes before 10 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock a recess was taken. During the recess Mr. Gray, speaking for the committee, said that as soon as the case was concluded the committee would print the testimony and lay it before the Senate. He said that it would be much on the line of that which heretofore appeared in the newspapers, but with more detail. The fact that a direct offer of money was made has been proven by one witness at least, according to the statement of the chairman of the committee.

MR. HUNTON'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Kyle Avers That He Was Directly Offered Money—Butts Enters a General Denial.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery alleged to have been attempted by Major Butts, and also to consider the doings of the Sugar Trust in connection with legislation, held two sessions to-day behind closed doors, with newspaper men and a few minutes before 10 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock a recess was taken. During the recess Mr. Gray, speaking for the committee, said that as soon as the case was concluded the committee would print the testimony and lay it before the Senate. He said that it would be much on the line of that which heretofore appeared in the newspapers, but with more detail. The fact that a direct offer of money was made has been proven by one witness at least, according to the statement of the chairman of the committee.

MR. HUNTON'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Kyle Avers That He Was Directly Offered Money—Butts Enters a General Denial.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery alleged to have been attempted by Major Butts, and also to consider the doings of the Sugar Trust in connection with legislation, held two sessions to-day behind closed doors, with newspaper men and a few minutes before 10 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock a recess was taken. During the recess Mr. Gray, speaking for the committee, said that as soon as the case was concluded the committee would print the testimony and lay it before the Senate. He said that it would be much on the line of that which heretofore appeared in the newspapers, but with more detail. The fact that a direct offer of money was made has been proven by one witness at least, according to the statement of the chairman of the committee.

MR. HUNTON'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Kyle Avers That He Was Directly Offered Money—Butts Enters a General Denial.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery alleged to have been attempted by Major Butts, and also to consider the doings of the Sugar Trust in connection with legislation, held two sessions to-day behind closed doors, with newspaper men and a few minutes before 10 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock a recess was taken. During the recess Mr. Gray, speaking for the committee, said that as soon as the case was concluded the committee would print the testimony and lay it before the Senate. He said that it would be much on the line of that which heretofore appeared in the newspapers, but with more detail. The fact that a direct offer of money was made has been proven by one witness at least, according to the statement of the chairman of the committee.

MR. HUNTON'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Kyle Avers That He Was Directly Offered Money—Butts Enters a General Denial.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery alleged to have been attempted by Major Butts, and also to consider the doings of the Sugar Trust in connection with legislation, held two sessions to-day behind closed doors, with newspaper men and a few minutes before 10 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock a recess was taken. During the recess Mr. Gray, speaking for the committee, said that as soon as the case was concluded the committee would print the testimony and lay it before the Senate. He said that it would be much on the line of that which heretofore appeared in the newspapers, but with more detail. The fact that a direct offer of money was made has been proven by one witness at least, according to the statement of the chairman of the committee.

TURTLES THAT FOUGHT.

Two Fishermen Interfere With a Novel and Desperate Battle.

MR. HUNTON'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Kyle Avers That He Was Directly Offered Money—Butts Enters a General Denial.

It is no uncommon thing for snapping turtles to be brought in from the towns of Pennsylvania. On the contrary, "snapper" fishing or hunting is a sport peculiar to the region, hundreds of big turtles being captured in various ways every week of the season. But it is uncommon for snapping turtles to be brought in just the way that two were brought into Fisher's Edly five days ago. The two turtles were very large ones, and one had its jaws closely tightly shut, and the other had its jaws wide open. They were captured by John and James Skelly under the following circumstances:

The two Skelly boys were fishing in the eddy from a flat-bottomed boat, when they saw a great commotion in the water a few rods distant. They paddled toward the spot, and saw that the commotion was being made by two big snapping turtles who were engaged in a desperate fight. They rushed at one another and came together with a shock that made them both rebound a yard or more and threw the turtles into the air. As they darted around each other these animals being exceedingly agile and quick in the water, although so clumsy and slow on the land—they made savage lunges at each other with their powerful legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his massive head thrust forward to seize his assailant if possible.

When the latter was within a foot or so of the waiting turtle he dived like a flash and came up under his opponent's legs, the evident effort of each to seize the other at a vulnerable point. The collisions and fierce maneuvers lasted several minutes without either turtle obtaining any advantage, when suddenly one of them dashed toward the water toward his antagonist, who waited for the attack, his yellow eyes glaring and his